Description

Who is Hiring?

Third Republic is happy to announce a step forward towards a greener world through its association with a leading charging station manufacturing company for electric vehicles. Our client has already installed charging stations for some of the biggest organisations in the UK, such as O2 Telefonica, Britvic, Lloyds Group, and more.

Our client intends to take the company's efforts to the next level and wants to hire a dynamic and self-motivated Salesforce Administration to join their in-house team at the earliest. Send in your application today if you fit the bill and are looking forward to working with an innovative organisation with ample growth opportunities from within.

What you'll be doing

- Developing custom applications for different divisions of the group
- Supporting all the levels of data migration
- Working for internal and external APIs
- Configuring Workflow Rules/Process Builder
- Collaborating with Salesforce customer support
- Raising tickets as and when required
- Adding new functionality and app releases
- Handling Security Profiles, Roles and Permission Sets

What you'll bring to the role

- At least 1 year of prior experience as a Salesforce Administrator
- Strong understanding of the Salesforce platform
- Hands-on experience of building custom apps and objects, formula fields and workflows
- Familiarity with Visual Flows and Data Loaders

Bonus points

- Certified Salesforce Administrator (ADM201) or Certified Salesforce Platform Builder preferred
- Knowledge about Field Service Lightning
- Prior experience working on Visualforce and lightning components

Benefits

- Attractive remuneration of up to £45K – £55K
- Flexible working hours
- Casual dress code
- 25 days holiday in a year
- Generous maternity and paternity leave schemes
